The Potentate's Message

J. Corey Cain

Good afternoon
Ladies and Noble's,

The summer is almost over and autumn will quickly be upon us. We will soon be pulling out our fall jackets, bundling firewood, and sipping hot chocolate, while we admire the beautiful fall colors. This summer, has been one of the best summers that I have ever had. I had the pleasure of being on the turf at Lambeau Field with the Imperial Potentate, and the Potentate's from Beja, Tripoli and Zor for the kick-off of the Midwest Shrine game.

The very next day was the R. Thomas Peter's Memorial Golf outing, which was an absolute success thanks to Oliver Burns, Tony Giorgianni, III. Ryan Engle, Travis Freeman, Barrett Engle, Gordy Peterson, Hailee Engle, Ike Blessitt, Cheryl and Bob Morrison, Charlie Simons, Sarah Balding, Anna LaBrenche and all the golfers that attended. This event would not have been possible with all your help. Thank you!

The summer ceremonial was held on August 10th 2019, I am proud to report that we welcomed two new Noble's into your ranks, so if you see Noble McGinn or Noble Taylor make sure you congratulate them and welcome them to our Shrine. While we aren't able to have the parades in Marquette like we used to, we were still able to do the Shrine around town. We loaded everyone onto the Ahmed Shrine Clown bus and slowly made our way around Marquette. I can happily report that while we can't parade like we used to, we still managed to attract quite a crowd. I can happily say that fun was had by all.

I've spent enough time reminiscing on the great times, which were had by all this summer, we need to now turn our attention to what is to come. First, I need to report that the upcoming fishing trip to Standard Rock is going to be re-scheduled, we are currently working with the Charter company and our own Masonic calendar to re-schedule a time and date that doesn't majorly conflict with other events.

We have three other major events coming up this fall that you all need to make sure you have on your calendars.

September 21st in Marquette will be the Ahmed Shrine Travel Raffle, remember to get out and sell those tickets, need not be present to win. The travel raffle tickets, are the best deal you are going to get all year, $25 for a chance to win a Caribbean cruise and 24 other prizes, we must be crazy.

The next major event is our all Masonic weekend in Newberry, please reference the cover of the Ahmedian and other pages for more information.

Mackinac Island, October 19th we will be staying at the Lake View Hotel on Mackinac Island, currently we have 3 rooms still available at the hotel for $139.00 for the night, these are double queen rooms, so if necessary we can double up, depending on your situation that is. As we get closer, a secret trip itinerary will be given to those Noble's and their ladies who signed up for the trip. I won't give away the surprise now but it's going to be a good time and perhaps a bit spooky....

I hope that everyone has enjoyed their summer and all of the festivities that Ahmed has been able to provide. Please remember these types of activities wouldn't be possible without the help and dedication of all of our Noble's, their Ladies and friends. Thank you to all those that have helped to make Ahmed the great temple that it is.

Hello All,
I thought that I would catch you up on financials of Ahmed Circus with the marketing company only brought in $6,000 after the bills and the golf outing after all is said and done will break even.

What does this mean?

It means that Ahmed is in need of a win with the Travel Raffle. We started selling tickets a little over a month ago. We have 7 that have returned with money to the temple. If we sell all 1200 before September 21st Ahmed will make $25,000 + in profit.

Ahmed, my Brothers, is in need of fundraising money to continue to thrive.

Unfortunately we have lost many good brothers to the Black Camel as we do every year and as we are trying to bring in new members to the fold we are not keeping up.

If you haven't got tickets contact your local club secretary or me here at the office. We will send them to you so you can get out there and support our Organization that supports over 300 kids across the Upper Peninsula.

Summer Ceremonial was good this year we had a great group of Nobles and ladies show up and have a great time. We look forward to seeing you all at the events as the more Shriners and their ladies that we can get in the room the more opportunities for fun that we have.

Fall looks to be a good one this year and we are planning to be in Newberry in October for the Masonic Weekend like we did last year in the Sault. It was a great turnout and I look forward to seeing a great turnout this year again.

Lastly I want to remind you all that we are a team of men committed to a larger goal. Remember that our goal is to take care of kids across the Upper Peninsula and across the world.

We do this by supporting the Hospitals and the transportation fund. That being said if we don't have the means to take care of ourselves we can't continue to take care of kids and their families. Ahmed Shrine and its divan are always looking to better our position financially so we can thrive not just survive. We are all busy people, and we all want to see our mission succeed. The way to do that is participate in your local shrine clubs, sell tickets, talk to your friends, sons, grandsons, about the greatest philanthropy in

As Always I look forward to seeing you all soon at an event.

Have a great day!

Fraternally,

Greetings from Newberry Nobles,

The summer months have been exciting times for our Newberry Shrine Club. As I draft my column I can't help but think that just a few years ago our Shrine Club was on life support, with one active member James S. Parrish III. Fast forward to this summer our Shrine Club single handily sold CD's for the band Foreigner at their concert event in St. Ignace. We helped raise over $1,500 for Shriner Hospitals for Children! All of our members and ladies had so much fun and said we would do this again in a heartbeat since it was such a rewarding experience. We also invited a Blue Lodge member from McMillan #400. He was so moved by the event that he decided to become a Shiner just two days later at our Summer

Ceremonial! It's a lesson to the Shrine Clubs that are struggling, and to all of us, that things can change for the better with a little work and commitment to the Craft. Speaking out our Summer Ceremonial, we welcomed two new Nobles Hal Taylor and Sterling McGinn both of Newberry!

Our Newberry Shrine Club will be starting monthly dinner meetings moving around at area restaurants. Our first dinner meeting will be Thursday, September 5th . If you would like to attend call or email me with details. We're so excited to be back at this point of membership with our Shrine Club. My cell number is 906-420-1065 and my email is travis@sovcomm.net We're turning out thoughts to fall and our second annual Fall Masonic Weekend will be taking place in Newberry. Friday, October 4th Ahmed Shrine will meet at the Newberry Elks Lodge #1705. Social Hour will be at 6pm with our dinner meeting to follow at 7pm. Then Saturday, October 5th the Valley of Marquette will host our 191st Reunion at McMillan Lodge #400 starting around 9am. We'll round out the weekend with a Brothers of the Rite Ceremony and The Dirge. The Brothers of the Rite bus will Dirge and enjoy the fall foliage with a tour to Tahquamenon Falls Brewery and Pub for dinner and drinks, with stops at Wolf Inn and Pine Stump Junction to follow. A room block is set up at the new Pleasant Moose Lodge, located behind Zellars Village Inn, in Newberry. Rates start at $82 for a two double queen bed room. Call 906-762-1000 to book your room today. Ask for the All Masonic Weekend rate. It's a great time to be a Mason and I hope to see you in Newberry the first weekend in October.

Fraternally yours in the sunshine of the Shrine,

Ladies and Nobles: Summer Ceremonial is officially over, and 2019 seems to be winding down. It was a great time sharing in the fellowship with all the Ladies and Nobles who attended. This year, we had the first R. Thomas Peters memorial golf outing, which was well attended and a very fun time. Summer Ceremonial is always a fun time for the Nobility. This year we also had a drawing for the Henry .22 Rifle for the 125 year Ahmed Shrine Giveaway Tribute. This handsome rifle was won by Escanaba's Harold "Bud" Irving. Moving forward, the Divan is going to be meeting soon to discuss whether we should make some changes in our events schedule. Our focus in recent years has been to make Ahmed more accessible, and get more Nobles throughout the Peninsula involved. We are eager to hear what the Ladies and Nobility want from Ahmed, and what we can do to make things better. If you have any suggestions that you think will help Ahmed, please let me or another Divan member know. Ahmed is wonderful, and we are looking forward to having many more great years in this noble Shrine of ours.

Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, (I know we are no longer to refer to ourselves as that, as directed by Imperial a few years back when the went from A.A.N.O.M.S to Shiner's International. But it's so much cooler than just saying Nobles)

Welcome to late summer. Did you realize the year is over half way gone? We are closer to the start of 2020 than we are to the start of 2019. soon we will be in the 4th quarter of 2019. I hope you have made some memories in 2019. I hope you have grown in your walk in Masonry and with the Shrine. It is this time of year where, for most of us, our new years resolutions are a thing of the past, as we have failed miserably. But when I look back at the first part of 2019 and ask what have I done? I may not have restarted an exercise program and lost 20 pounds. I may not have read a book a month, in fact right now I am still working on book 2 this year. But I can look back at parts of 2019 that are gone and be proud. I have been out being a Shiner, and that means more to me than almost anything else.

What does it mean to be a Shiner? I think everyone may have a different opinion. To me, it means trying to be the best I can be, and supporting my brothers, and supporting our cause of helping less fortunate children. But what is does that mean? First it means I am a man, and a Mason in good standing. To get into the Shrine, I had to be first a Master Mason. Masonry is the foundation of the Shrine. Our Arch Degree reminds us of that. To be a good Shiner, we must also live by the code of a Mason, circumscribing ourselves and squaring our actions to each other.

Second, to me it means I am an important part of something bigger than myself. One of the draws to the Shrine for me was the Shiner Children's Hospital System. I wanted to be a part of something bigger than me that made a difference in the world. It is hard to find something that makes more of a difference in more lives than our Shiner Children's Hospitals. If you have never had the chance to visit one, put that on your bucket list. The doctors, nurses and other workers are like none other I have ever encountered. the services offered are top notch. We have a lot to be proud of in our Hospital system. We are all important parts of the Shriner's Hospital system. We each have different spheres of influence. Sometime in your life, I guarantee, you will either come across someone who can use the services of Shriner's Hospital, or someone who is willing to give to it. Maybe both. Maybe several of each. Even if you can't personally be able to give your time, talents, or services, that doesn't mean that you can't be the tool someone else uses to access the system. Let that sink in. You may be the conduit which connects a kid to a service which will help restore a life, or you may be a conduit in which someone else helps support the services which help so many lives. Third, it means I have good men to associate with which I can call more than nobles, more than brothers, but also friends. Lets face it, the hospital is big and far away. We lose site of things and forget if we don't see them regularly. However we all have local clubs and units with other Nobles closer to home. It is this social networking with like minded men that I really enjoy. They remind me that I am a part of something that matters by being in the Shrine.

Lastly, being a Shriner means having fun. Let's face it, the Shrine has a reputation for fun. To most of the non-masonic world, Shriners are men wearing silly red hats and having fun. They drive silly little cars, bikes, and other vehicles in parades.

Shriner's are also clowns run around at the circus. They support Shriner's Hospitals for Children, the best bone, joint, and burn centers in the whole world. They are always seen having fun, and always enjoying each others company. That is what I thought growing up, and once I became a Shriner, I knew my impression as a kid wasn't to far off. (Maybe I took this part of Shriners having fun too seriously as now I am a Chief Joey. But I do enjoy being a clown so much)

What I didn't understand when I was younger was the bonds of brotherhood. And that is what ties us all together. The brotherhood. Knowing deep down we have like ideals and that we are there for each other.

I am never alone as long as I am a Noble of the Mystic Shrine. Neither are you.

Boys Town Hospital-Shriners venture to allow better access to orthopedic care.

from Omaha World-Herald Aug
11, 2019

Jennifer Olsen has been traveling back and forth between Lincoln and Minneapolis regularly since her daughter, Maylena, was 8 months old.

At first, they made about two trips a year. The number peaked at 16 in the last half of 2013 when Maylena had the first of three procedures to lengthen a leg that's shorter than the other. Last year, they made the drive 13 times and this year three — so far. But Jennifer Olsen is hoping a new collaboration between Boys Town National Research Hospital and Shriners Healthcare for Children-Twin Cities Clinic will cut their drive time for some routine visits from seven hours to an hour. The two organizations announced Thursday in a room packed with fez-wearing Shriners — and a clown — that orthopedic specialists from Shriners Twin Cities Clinic will travel to Omaha to hold regular face-to-face clinics at Boys Town, beginning in September.

Boys Town also will serve as the first telehealth site in the Shriners Twin Cities Clinic service territory, which covers seven states and parts of Canada.

The aim is to provide greater access to orthopedic care for existing and new patients in Nebraska and surrounding states. Maylena Olsen, now 15, is among more than 500 patients who already travel regularly from Nebraska to be seen at the Shriners Twin Cities Clinic. She has a rare genetic condition that causes skeletal malformations and other problems.

Mother and daughter participated in a demonstration of the telehealth technology last week from Shriners Twin Cities Clinic before getting on the road back to Lincoln.

“The drive to Omaha will be so much easier than having to drive up (to Minnesota) all the time,” Jennifer Olsen said.

Dr. Edward Kolb, director of the Boys Town hospital, said some face-to-face visits by the Minnesota orthopedics team began in November.

Roger Robinson, chairman of the Shriners Twin Cities Clinic board, said the Minnesota team so far has seen 84 patients from Nebraska, Iowa and South Dakota at Boys Town, saving families trips to the Twin Cities.

Shriners also volunteer to drive patients to visits, he said. Last year, volunteer drivers made 150 trips from Nebraska to the Twin Cities. That number likely will decrease. And while Shriners and other groups may help cover travel and lodging costs, families may face out-of-pocket costs that can mount over time.

Robinson was joined for the announcement by top officials from Shriners Hospitals for Children and Shriners International, the fraternal and philanthropic organization that helps support the hospital network.

Kolb said the new partners already are talking about other services they could expand access to through the collaboration, such as cleft lip and palate, cochlear implants and deafness. All are among Boys Town’s specialties.

“We’re going to build something better together,” he said. “This announcement today is not the end of what we began ... but really the beginning of new things we’re going to do together.”

Boys Town staff will provide support if needed during the face-to-face clinics, particularly radiology services.

The telehealth consultations will be conducted over high-speed Internet connections, using tools such as hand-held cameras to get close-ups and digital stethoscopes, otoscopes and dermoscopes. The close-ups could be used to check how well incisions are healing and monitor range of motion in joints, among other things.

“I truly look forward to watching this relationship grow for the benefit of current and future patients from Nebraska and surrounding states,” Kolb said.

Dear Brothers,

Last fall's Masonic Weekend in Sault St. Marie was so successful we decided to have another similar event this year. This year will be held in Newberry on October 4th and 5th. The Shrine will be having fun and fellowship on Friday evening, an abbreviated Scottish Rite Reunion Saturday morning and we will be adding the BOR Dirge and celebration immediately following the Reunion on Saturday.

If you know any brothers that would like to join Scottish Rite, Brothers of the Rite or both, this would be a great time to do it! Petitions are in this issue.

Candidates will need to contact the Marquette Masonic Center 906-225-1157, or email Bill Leveque aasrmgt@gmail.com or for BOR to get the name list and shirt order form get ahold of jakehayrynen@jmlongyear.com or call 906-250-5284.

A room block is set up at the new Pleasant Moose Lodge, located behind Zellars Village Inn, in Newberry. Rates start at $82 for a two double queen bed room. Call 906-762-1000 to book your room today. Ask for the All Masonic Weekend rate.

We are hoping that the Newberry location will attract our Brothers from below the bridge.

We look forward to a GREAT WEEKEND!

Teal Lake Lodge and Scottish Rite Valley of Marquette are pleased to announce an event honoring our Widows and Past Masters on September 14th at 4:00 pm at the Teal Lake Lodge in Negaunee.

This year will be extra special as we also honor Brother Alan Nelson who is the recent recipient of Medal for Masonic Service that was presented to him by the Sovereign Grand Commander of Scottish Rite NMJ, David Glattly.

Alan is one of the only 2 recipients ever in the State of Michigan! It is truly a great honor and we are proud of Alan's dedication and service to Freemasonry.

This is a family event that will include dinner and short presentation.

Please join us for this wonderful event!
